thank you for visiting the loaf
please call again soon

here at the loaf we aim to be a busy and vibrant artisan bakery, delicatessen and café selling a wide range of specialist bakery products, home made café food and deli-style groceries.

most of what we serve is made from scratch with ingredients sourced as locally as possible and containing no additives or preservatives.

if you would like any information about the origin of ingredients in our products, please do not hesitate to ask.

please note that nuts & seeds are used in the production processes at the bakery in Crich.
